

Research Project: Problem Statement #1

Language Loss in Adults and Children

I am studying the occurrences of loss of language acquisition in children and adults because I want to find out if there are differences stemming from development that affect this degradation in order to help my reader understand the variety of potential effects of development on the process of brains unlearning a language.