

Research Project: Problem Statement #2

Neural Network Bias Mitigation

I am studying how neural network biases are displayed in the code and training data because I want to find out how we can mitigate said biases and make neural networks less prejudiced against marginalized groups in order to help my reader understand the reality of neural network biases and their real-world affect on marginalized human beings, as well as how we can make them more equitable towards all people, not just cisgender white men.