
Research Problem Finalization Assignment

The Effect of Music on the Induction of Emotional States Over Time

I am studying the effects of music on the induction of emotional states over time because I want to find out if and how emotional states fluctuate when interacting with music and the environment, and if variables like age and music taste affect those fluctuations in order to help my reader understand what music can do to the body/mind from an embodied cognition perspective.