TASK 4: Finding neighboring weight vectors: Find the weight vectors that are neighbors to the winning weight vector. Common techniques for finding the neighboring vectors, include others hexagons, concentric squares, and the gaussian function.

TASK 4 Demo Outline: "Finding neighboring weight vectors"
1. Create a method that finds all the neighboring weight vectors on a grid within the radius of a specific weight vector (winning weight vector), using the gaussian function.